Task 5.

Should holidays be shorter?

Should holidays be shorter? What an interesting question! There are ~~a lot of~~ ^{not only} advantages, but disadvantages about this idea. Let's talk about them.

On the one hand, every student loves holidays. Almost all girls and boys become upset when autumn comes. They think that three month is not enough to relax after a long school year. And some people want to make holidays shorter! What a disgusting idea! Not everyone will be happy with this innovation. It sounds unreal to realise.

On the other hand, probably the bigger school year will reduce the education period. If we studied ten month instead of nine, we would probably finish school at the age of sixteen, not seventeen or eighteen. In that case, you will get more time to study in the university or find a job sooner. It sounds good, isn't it?

In my opinion, the best option is to make summer holidays quite shorter. Two month is enough to have a rest and explore your own interests. Furthermore, the smaller holidays - the smaller school life! By the tenth class we will have finished school! Isn't it a dream?

All cases consurned, my choise is shorter holidays and smaller number of school years. If it was real, our lives would be much happier.
