READING

Task 2. Read the story and answer the question who was stronger?

THE WIND AND THE SUN

Once the Wind and the Sun had an argument. "I am stronger than you," said the Wind. "No, you are not," said the Sun. Just at that moment they saw a traveler walking across the road. He was wrapped in a shawl. The Sun and the Wind agreed that whoever could separate the traveller from his shawl was stronger.

The Wind took the first turn. He blew with all his might to tear the traveller's shawl from his shoulders. But the harder he blew, the tighter the traveller gripped the shawl to his body. The struggle went on till the Wind's turn was over. Now it was the Sun's turn. The Sun smiled warmly. The traveller felt the warmth of the smiling Sun. Soon he let the shawl fall open. The Sun's smile grew warmer and warmer, hotter and hotter. Now the traveller no longer needed his shawl. He took it off and dropped it on the ground.

A Visit to the Factory

Our teacher Mrs Wintley is fond of taking us ... (29) excursions. Last week she organised an excursion to a toffee factory. She said that a class of such candy-lovers ... (30) see how sweets are produced today.

We were shown around by one of the managers who ... (31) us everything about the technological process. We now know that ... (32) colouring is never added to these sweets and only natural ingredients are used. Our guide also mentioned that new innovative ideas are welcomed in their factory and they are ... (33) to produce new types of sweets very soon.

At the moment, the new technology ... (34) introduced. However, the original family recipe is still used. We could see the toffee batch being heated, spread and cooled. Some of us were allowed to cut and decorate the sweets with coconut. At the end of the excursion we were given ... (35) of delicious toffees for our tea.
