(2) Review

I believe that courses are one of the best ways to learn something new, something that you didn't know before. Recently I have been on a language course. We have studied German there. The classes were really fascinating. Our teacher told us a lot of interesting things about German language. For example, it has three genders, four cases and a huge amount of article forms. It is believed that learning German is hard. Actually, it is, but only if you're not fond of languages.

The most interesting thing I learned was German word building. The way in which Germans form new words can be both funny and terrifying. Sometimes those words are difficult to pronounce. But their meanings are easy to explain in the majority of the cases. For instance, the word "Waldeinsamkeit" means a feeling of loneliness in the forest. That's easy to understand because it consists of two simple words. The first one is "der Wald" which means "the forest" and the second one is "die Einsamkeit" which means "the loneliness".

I would highly recommend the course to other people. But I want to make it clear that there are a lot of different courses. You can always choose a sports course, a photography course or something else. The diversity is the best thing about courses.
