'Enola Holmes' is an amazing film about the world wide known Sherlock Holmes' younger sister, starring Millie Bobby Brown, who had played Eleven from 'Stranger Things', ~~or~~ Henry Cavill and many others. Everything starts when Mrs. Holmes suddenly disappears. Her daughter, who is incredibly smart, goes looking for her mother immediately. Enola's older brother, Mycroft, is trying hard to make his sister act more lady-like, but nothing can break this girl's strong character. Even the special school she was put into could not hold her back. That is where Sherlock comes to help. Her unbelievable adventures are really exciting to watch. To my mind, this film is a magnificent example of doing everything possible to achieve a goal. No matter what obstacles are faced, never give up! I highly recommend teenagers and young people to see it. This might help to gain confidence in your hobbies and beginnings. Watching 'Enola Holmes' was an unforgettable experience which clearly left a great impression in my mind.
