The film I will be talking about is „Matrix”. Yes, I know this film is already extremely popular, but there is a whole generation of people who might not have seen it.

„Matrix” was released in 1999 and became a sensation practically instantly. Main character - Neo (played by Keanu Reeves) is a hacker ~~that~~ ^{who} works for a big-tech company in the 80's. He meets a strange woman, who knows a lot about him and the Matrix itself. She leads him to an international cyberthief - Morpheus, who asks him to take one of the two pills.

I won't spoiler it all, but this film is considered a timeless classic not for nothing! ^{for a reason} I rate this movie 8/10 and only because the second half of the film has a really bad CGI for modern standards.

I suggest the trilogy of „Matrix” for all people to watch for some it can be a mind-opening experience...
