navy, etc - h

My father had a small house in Nottinghamshire. I was the third of five sons. When I was seventeen years old, I was sent to Mr. James Bates, a well-known doctor in London, with whom I worked and studied for four years.

When I left Mr. Bates, I began to work as a ship doctor on the Swallow.
 (6) B After that I decided to stay in London.

I bought a part of a small house and married Miss Mary Burton. But life in London was not easy. (7) A. I spoke to my wife and some of my friends, and decided to become a ship doctor again.

I agreed to go with Captain William Prichard, who was making a voyage to the South Seas on board the Antelope. We started from Bristol on the 4th of May, 1699. (8) b. But when we were sailing across the Indian Ocean, a terrible storm began which carried our ship to the east for many days. Twelve of our sailors died of hard work and bad food, the others were ill. On the 5th of November which was the beginning of summer in those parts, our ship struck a rock. (9) E I cannot tell what became of my companions, and of those sailors who remained on the ship and on the rock, but I think that they were all drowned. I swam where the wind and the waves carried me.

I was very tired, but just when I could swim no more, I felt the bottom with my feet. (10) C I walked a little inland, but didn't see any houses or people. I lay on the grass, which was very short and soft, and slept more than nine hours.

Read the article about learning to snowboard. Choose the best word (A, B or C) for each space. For questions 11–18, mark A, B or C on your answer sheet. The first one is done for you.

log. orb = 25

Learning to snowboard

If you want to learn to snowboard, the first thing you need to do is book (11) some lessons. It's a good idea to have lessons with a snowboard school (12) because you need to learn the right way to snowboard. You will have much (13) more fun learning with other people as well.

Indoor snow schools usually (14) give you a snowboard, boots and a helmet to wear on your head (15) during lessons. The indoor centres are cold and use real snow, so warm clothes are important. It's not a good idea to wear jeans because (16) they get wet easily.

If you learn outside on a mountain, you (17) have to take your own board and boots or rent them. You will (18) also need sunglasses, gloves and a helmet.

Do you agree Happy Birthday to You is_ the world's most famous song? It (19) is recognised (recognise) by just about everyone. In fact somebody probably (20) is singing (sing) it somewhere in the world at this moment! But what are the origins of a tune which (21) have become (become) so famous?

In 1893 two teachers Patty and Mildred J.Hill (22) wrote (write) a song. They (23) called (call) it Good Morning to You. They (24) taught (teach) it to their kindergarten pupils in Kentucky, USA. The children (25) found (find) the song easy to learn and sing.

The present song (26) have (have) the same tune but different words. Millions of people (27) have been singing (sing) the song in many different languages since those days.

Not long ago it (28) was (be) my birthday. My guests (29) gave (give) me many presents. And I (30) heard (hear) this wonderful song when I (31) was blowing out (blow out) the candles on the cake.

I'd like to describe picture №2.

W The picture shows two people on a coast with huge fish. They are in the river by their feet. I'm not sure, but I think it is a father and his son. The father is wearing a cap and a sunglasses, while the son is wearing nothing but a shorts. W I can imagine that summer had just come, and the family decided to catch some fish. While the son and the father are posing, the mother is taking this picture!

I enjoy this photo because I'd also like to catch fish if I could.
